

Admission Criteria

Referrals to the Service member Transitional Advanced Rehabilitation Program must meet the following admission criteria:

- * Must be an Active Duty Service member or Veteran (SM/V) at least 18 years of age.
- * Have an injury or illness with residual physical limitations that can include cognitive and mental health aspects.
- * Have potential to benefit from a structured transition program in a residential living setting.
- * Be medically able and motivated to participate in up to 8 hours of therapy sessions and therapy outings per day, Monday – Friday.
- * Have goals which indicate a strong potential for rehabilitation and return to gainful employment along with motivation to participate in vocational therapy to explore and determine employment and education goals.
- * Have goals which indicate a strong potential for reintegration into the community and motivation to participate in therapies that support this transition.
- * Should not have active substance abuse concerns.
- * Should not exhibit behaviors posing risk/safety threat to self or others or exhibit behaviors that require alternate mental health services.

